Presentation by:
Andrea Lampert, J.D., Lead Attorney and Center Coordinator for Trafficking Law Center
Plus Q & A with the at:project and members of the Deschutes County CSEC Response Team

Hosted by OSU-Cascades & Deschutes County CSEC Response Team

Human trafficking has been in the news a lot lately, but what is it really and how does it impact our region? Join us for this important and timely awareness training in honor of Human Trafficking Awareness Month and learn more about human trafficking, local response efforts, and how you can get involved. We’ll discuss:

- What “human trafficking” means
- How and where it happens
- Who may be most vulnerable and why
- Central Oregon’s response team and resources
- Ways to get involved

About the Presenters: Andrea Lampert, J.D. is the co-founder of Trafficking Law Center (TLC) a non-profit law firm providing pro bono legal services to human trafficking victims and survivors in Oregon. Andrea grew up in Grants Pass and has over 25 years of experience working in social justice. Her experience includes legal representation, law and policy analysis, victim’s advocacy, NGO board service and development, and legal writing. She is a pro bono Attorney with the Oregon State Bar. She holds a JD from Willamette University, a BS in Psychology from Portland State University, and a BS in Merchandising Management from Oregon State University.

The Deschutes County Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) Response Team is a multi-disciplinary collaboration of agencies working together to coordinate and leverage resources to provide a comprehensive approach to child sex trafficking and services to victims and survivors. The CSEC Response Team is coordinated by the at: project – a program of J Bar J Youth Services – that provides comprehensive services for survivors of exploitation.
